

Grant Writing Fundamentals Class

The Grant Writing Fundamentals Class is a four-part Zoom class that teaches nonprofit professionals how to write corporate, foundation, and government grant proposals. Susan Woods facilitates the Zoom class using lecture, demonstration, and fun activities.

Part 1

Grant Writing Fundamentals Class – Part 1 teaches you to get organized for successful grant writing, complete a problem analysis, and write the first five components of standard grant proposals below.

- Problem Statement
- Vision Statement
- Mission Statement
- Qualitative Objectives
- Quantitative Goals

Part 2

Grant Writing Fundamentals Class – Part 2 teaches you to write:

- Program Description
- Program Budget
- Implementation Plan
- Evaluation Plan
- Sustainability Plan

Part 3

Grant Writing Fundamentals Class – Part 3 teaches you how to:

- create diversified revenue generation strategies.
- write corporate, foundation, and government grant proposals.
- locate requests for proposals (RFPs) or grant money.

Part 4

Grant Writing Fundamentals Class – Part 4 teaches you how to:

- analyze requests for proposals for compatibility.
- grade grant proposals using a rubric scorecard.
- sell the grant proposal during the Board meeting.